10.2 The bid uploaded online by the bidders and all correspondence and documents relating to the bid exchanged by the bidder with the purchaser shall be written in English only through e-procurement portal.

11. Documents comprising the bid

The bids shall comprise of (i) technical bid and (ii) the financial bid:

(i) The technical bid comprising of all the information / documents sought should be uploaded onto e-procurement portal. The documents / information sought should be in the same serial order as given in the technical bid format (Annexure-I)

(ii) The financial bid shall specify the rates / prices in the format shown in the financial bid/price schedule (Annexure-II) and should be uploaded onto the e-procurement portal.

N.B.: All the documents uploaded must be legible, otherwise the bid is likely to be rejected.

12. Bid Prices

12.1 The rates should be quoted in Indian Rupees only in words as well as figures inclusive of all levies and taxes including GST as applicable for the specifications of items and F.O.R. delivery Destination mentioned in the Annexure-II (price bid format). There should be no separate mention of GST in the quoted rates. All-inclusive rate shall be treated while evaluating the quotes.

12.2 Only one price should be quoted for the item and if more than one price is quoted for different destinations, the lowest rate quoted by a bidder will be valid and considered for evaluation for all destinations.

12.3 Rates/prices should be valid for one year from the date of issuing of Supply order. Rates/Prices shall remain fixed during the entire period of contract, i.e., one year. No claim for compensation or loss due to fluctuations or any other reasons/causes will be entertained. A bid with an adjustable price quotation will be treated as non-responsive and will be rejected.

12.4 Rates/ prices shall be fixed for the whole period of Contract and no change in Rates/Prices shall be Entertained by the bank.

13. Period of validity of bids

The bid shall remain valid and open for acceptance for a period of 180 days from the last date fixed for opening the same. A bid valid for a shorter period shall be rejected by the Purchaser as non-responsive.

14. Deadline for submission of bids

14.1 Bids must be uploaded in the bank's e-procurement portal mentioned in this document on or before the prescribed date and time mentioned in the Critical Date Sheet of this RFP Document.

14.2 The Bank may at his discretion, extend the deadline for bids through the issuance of an amendment for the reasons mentioned therein in which case all rights and obligations of the Purchaser and the bidders previously subject to the deadlines shall thereafter be subject to the new deadline as extended.

14.3 The responsibility for uploading the bids in time would rest with the bidder.

15.4 Telegraphic/Fax offers will be treated as defective, invalid and rejected. Only detailed complete bids received through the bank's e-procurement Portal prior to the closing time and date of the bids will be taken as valid.

15. Submission of Samples

Bidders are further required to submit sample, if any mentioned against each item in Annexure-II, for which the rates have been quoted by or before the last day of submission of bid at "The J&K Bank Central Stationery Deptt, Nowgam, Srinagar 190015 J&K". The samples shall be duly stamped and signed by the bidder. The samples shall not be returned back to the bidders. Bids not accompanied by samples (wherever asked for) will be summarily rejected.

16. Bid Opening

Bids will be opened by the Central Procurement Committee at the Banks Corporate Headquarters generally in the subsequent week after the closing date of the bid.

17. Process to be confidential

17.1 After the opening of bids by the Central Procurement Committee, information relating to the examination, clarification, evaluation and comparisons of bids and recommendations concerning the award of contract shall not be disclosed to bidders or other persons not officially concerned with such process.

17.2 Any effort by the bidder to influence the Purchaser in the process of examination, clarification, evaluation and comparison of bids and decision concerning award of contract may result in the rejection of the bidder's bid.

18. Clarification of Bids

18.1 To assist in the examination, evaluation and comparison of bids, the Purchaser may ask the bidders individually for clarification of their tenders.

18.2 The request for clarification and their response can be sought but no change in the price or substance of the tender shall be sought, offered or permitted except as required to confirm the correction of arithmetical errors discovered by the Purchaser during the evaluation of the tenders.

18.3 The bidder shall promptly provide all necessary information and documents to be submitted to the Purchaser during evaluation of its tender. Failure to provide correct and timely information, concealment of material facts regarding litigation history and arbitration proceedings, etc., having a material bearing on the evaluation process may render its tender being treated as non-responsive and will be liable to be rejected summarily.

19. Technical evaluation

19.1 The Purchaser shall carry out the evaluation based on the uploaded certificates/documents in the eProcurement system, receipt of EMD within the prescribed time, and the quality of samples, wherever applicable.

19.2 The competent authority shall examine/evaluate the technical bids to determine whether they (i) fulfill the eligibility criteria, (ii) submitted the requisite documents (iii) meet the terms and conditions specified, (iv) complied with all the instructions contained therein, etc., including submitting of samples, if any asked.

19.3 Prior to financial evaluation, the Purchaser will determine the substantial responsiveness of each bid to the bid document. For the purpose of this clause, a substantially responsive bid is one which conforms to all the terms, conditions and specifications of the bid documents without any deviation or reservation. The determination of bid's responsiveness shall be based on the contents of the bid itself without recourse to extrinsic evidence.

19.4 A bid determined as substantially non-responsive will be rejected by the purchaser and shall not subsequent to the bid opening be made responsive by the bidder by correction of the non-conformity.

19.5 The Bank will be within its rights to ask the bidder to furnish any document at any point of time during technical evaluation and failure on the part of bidder to do so may lead to rejection of his bid.

20. Financial evaluation and comparison of substantially technically responsive bids

20.1 After the technical evaluation, which could involve ascertaining suitability of samples (wherever asked) by the Central Procurement Committee, the Bank shall carry out the evaluation based on the uploaded schedule of rates (price bids) in the e-procurement system.

20.2 The financial bids of technically qualified bidders only will be recommended for opening and consideration by the Central Procurement Committee. The said Committee will evaluate the bids to determine whether (i) they are complete; (ii) the requisite bid securities have been furnished; (iii) the bids are generally in order, etc. (iv) the suitability of samples for procurement (if samples have been sought by the purchaser).

20.3 The purchaser shall shortlist those who are eligible and submitted substantially technical responsive bids for opening of financial bid, which shall include submitting of samples, if any required in terms of eligibility of technical bid. The financial bids of unsuccessful bidders (who have not qualified for technical bid on the basis of set eligibility and on the basis of non-suitability of the sample provided by them as decided by the Central Procurement committee in its absolute discretion) would not be opened.

21. Award of Contract

21.1 The contract shall be awarded with the approval of the competent authority to the bidder whose bid has been determined eligible and substantially responsive to the bid documents and who has offered the lowest evaluated bid subject to the suitability or otherwise of the samples (wherever asked for) determined by the Central Procurement committee, and followed by Reverse auction with the bidders wherever deemed necessary by the Central Procurement Committee at its own discretion setting a threshold price for each item separately or an aggregate price for all items mentioned in the RFP for which the said two or more shortlisted bidders shall be required to compete.

21.2 It should be noted that the decision for acceptance of the samples as suitable or otherwise as mentioned above shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Central Procurement committee. No correspondence shall be entertained in this regard.

21.3 To ensure the timely supplies, the Central Procurement committee shall also be empowered in its own discretion to award the contract to single/two or more bidders as may be deemed feasible by the bank.

22. Right to accept/reject any or all Bids

The Purchaser reserves the right to accept or reject any bid including the lowest and to annul the bidding process and reject all bids, at any time prior to award of contract, without thereby incurring any liability to the affected bidder or bidders or any obligations to inform the affected bidder or bidders of the grounds for the said action.

23. Notification of Award

23.1 Prior to the expiry of the prescribed period of bid validity, the Bank will notify the successful bidder on e-procurement Portal or through its e-mail address that his bid has been found successful.

23.2 The notification of award will constitute the formation of the contract.

24. Annulment of the Award

24.1 Failure of the successful bidder to comply with any of the requirements shall constitute sufficient ground for the annulment of award and forfeiture of the bid security in which event the Purchaser may make the award to any other bidder at the discretion of the Purchaser or call for new bids.

24.2 Purchaser reserves the right to disqualify the bidder for a suitable period who fails to supply the item in time. Further, the bidder whose items do not perform satisfactorily or the quality of which is not satisfactory may also be disqualified for a period of two years or as decided by the Purchaser.

24.3 Purchaser reserves the right to blacklist a bidder for a period of two years or as decided by the Purchaser in case he fails to honour his bid.

24.4 The decision of the Purchaser in this regard shall be final and binding.

25. Interpretation of the contents of the bid document:

In case of dispute with regard to meaning or intent of any part or whole of this bid document, the interpretation decided by the purchaser shall have to be acceptable to the bidders.

The participation of the bidders for this tender shall be treated as acceptance of all instructions and terms & conditions including amendments, if any, for fulfilment of contract.

26. All costs and expenses incurred by interested bidders in any way associated with the development, preparation and submission of responses, including but not limited to the attendance at meetings, discussions, demonstrations etc. and providing any additional information required by J & K bank, will be Borne entirely and exclusively by the bidder.

27. The Bidder shall, by responding to the Bank with a bid/proposal, be deemed to have accepted the terms of this document and the disclaimer in totality without any condition whatsoever and accepts the selection and evaluation process mentioned in this RFP document. The bidder ceases to have any option to object against any of these processes at any stage subsequent to submission of its responses to this RFP.

28. The bidder shall observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contract and shall not to indulge in any corrupt and fraudulent practice.

29. After the completion of bidding process, the successful bidder will be required to sign an agreement with the bank wherein all the terms and conditions governing the parties will be mentioned.

30. The Contract and any obligations arising out of or in connection with the RFP shall be governed by the laws of India read with the local laws of the Union Territory of J&K, wherever applicable. The courts at Srinagar shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine any proceeding in relation to this RFP.

31. The Bidder agrees and undertakes to Indemnify the purchaser and keep it indemnified against losses, damages suffered and claims, action/suits brought against the purchaser on account of any act or omission or misrepresentation on part of the Bidder, its agent, representative, employees in relation to the performance or otherwise of the services to be provided under the RFP.

32. Each Bidder having responded to this RFP acknowledges to have read, understood and accepts the selection & evaluation process mentioned in this RFP document. The bidder ceases to have any option to object against any of these processes at any stage subsequent to submission of its responses to this RFP.

33. The supplier bidder shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if any to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligation under this contract is the result of an event of force Majeure.

For purpose of this clause, “Force Majeure” means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the suppliers fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may be due to but are not restricted to wars, riots, earthquakes, fire, epidemic, quarantine restrictions, any act of God, act of Govt. of India, trade embargos, or any other such cause, which is beyond the reasonable control of the party.

The party claiming benefit of force majeure shall however not be entitled to the same unless it has intimated the other party of the occurrence of such an event within five working days from the occurrence of such force majeure event indicating therein the steps that it is taking or intending to take to mitigate the effect of such force majeure on the performance of his obligations under this agreement and shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

Notwithstanding above, the decision of the bank shall be final and binding on the supplier regarding termination of contract or otherwise.

If force majeure applies, dates by which obligations are scheduled to be met will be extended for a period of time equal to the time lost due to any delay so caused. In the event of the force majeure conditions continuing beyond 12 weeks, the Bank shall review this RFP and shall be entitled to cancel this RFP, if found necessary.

07. Termination for Default

7.1 The Purchaser may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default, sent to the bidder, terminate this contract in whole or in part, if

- (a) the bidder fails to deliver any or all the goods/items within the time period (s) specified in the P.O., or any extension thereof granted by the purchaser;
- (b) the bidder fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the T & Cs of this tender document: and
- (c) the bidder, in either of the above circumstances, does not remedy his failure within a period of 15 days (or such longer period as the purchaser may authorize in writing) after receipt of the default notice from the purchaser.
- (d) Supply of defective goods not confirming to samples, poor quality design, brand, etc.

7.2 In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part pursuant to Para 7.1 the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods similar to those undelivered and the bidder shall be liable to the Purchaser for any excess cost for such similar goods. However, the bidder shall continue the performance of the contract to the extent not terminated. The purchaser is free to procure the supplies in lieu of undelivered/delayed/defective supply from other source at the risk and cost of the bidder.

7.3 The Bank shall have right to terminate the whole tendering process without assigning any reasons for such termination.

08. Set Off:

Any sum of money due and payable to the bidder (including Performance Security Deposit refundable to him) under this contract may be appropriated by the purchaser and set off the same against any claim of the Purchaser for payment of sum of money arising out to this contract or under any other contract made by the bidder with the Purchaser.

09. Settlement of disputes

It will be the endeavour of the parties to resolve amicably any disputes or differences that may arise between the successful bidder and the Bank/ purchaser.

In case of any dispute or difference arising between the Bank and the successful bidder, such disputes or differences shall be settled in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The sole Arbitrator shall be chosen mutually by the parties. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final. The expenses of the arbitrator as determined by the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties. The Arbitration proceedings shall be held at Srinagar (J&K) and the language of arbitration proceedings and that of documents and communications between the parties shall be English.

10. Mode of Payment

10.1 Payment against Bill / Invoice shall be released only after execution of the supply order and the quality of the items are found to the satisfaction of the Bank Payment will be made direct to the bidder through A/c payee cheque/RTGS/NEFT (Electronic Mode) only.

10.2 No request for other mode of payment will be entertained. No advance payment will be made in any case.

11. Change in quantity

Quantity given in the tender is approximate and depends on the usage of the Purchaser. The purchaser reserves the right to vary the quantity mentioned depending upon the actual usage and the selected bidder should be able to supply the required quantity as and when required by the Purchaser.

12. Supply of additional Quantity of Stationery Items: In addition to the requirement sought in this tender/ RFP, the successful bidder shall be required to provide the item as per any additional requirement on the quoted rates for a period of one year from the date of first supply order. The repeat order shall also be required to be fulfilled within a similar time frame and terms and conditions as the original purchase order shall apply.

13. Purchaser's Rights

The Bank reserves the right to accept/reject any or all the Bids in whole or in part and annul the bidding process without assigning any reason whatsoever.

The Bank reserves the right to award the contract to more than one Bidder.

If a bidder after award of the contract violates any of the terms and conditions, fails to honor its bid without sufficient grounds and within reasonable time it shall be liable for blacklisting for a five-year period by the bank besides taking other legal action. EMD/performance security deposit shall also be forfeited.

14. Liquidated Damages for substandard / inferior quality

Besides the liquidated damages related to delay in supplies, liquidated damages of upto 30% of P.O. shall be imposed on the bidder for supplying items which are sub-standard (inferior quality)/ not as per approved sample, if any. The decision with regard to the quality of the items will be taken by the Purchaser and will be final and binding. Further the bidder is liable for blacklisting for future participation in any tendering process besides taking other legal action.

15. Validity of rates

Rates quoted should be valid for one year from the date of first supply order and can be extended on mutual agreement. Bids quoting the rates valid for periods less than one years will be considered nonresponsive.

16. Packaging of Supplies

The supplies must be packed in 7 Ply corrugated box with thermocol covering to avoid damages. Each item must bear carton No., Name of Printer/ bidder/ Quantity, Item Name, Challan No/GR No. positively. The bank shall not accept any loose supply.

17. Terms of Payment:

The payment shall be released only after the completion of supply of each purchase order and no request for part payment or advance payment shall be entertained by the bank.

Certificate from Paper Manufacturers: The bank reserves the right to ask the successful bidder to furnish a certificate from the concerned paper manufacturing companies that the paper supplied has been manufactured by them.

18. Deduction of TDS/ GST etc: The rates quoted shall be inclusive of GST/ all other taxes and levies, freight etc. TDS as applicable shall be deducted from all bills. GST shall be deducted as per bills provided by the bidder.

19. Sub-Contract: The successful bidder shall be required to execute the supply order wholly by itself and in no case shall sub-contract/ sublet the whole or part of the supply order.

20. Communication with the bank: All bidders shall be necessarily required to provide a valid email address and mobile number, so that all future communications shall be done through these modes of communication. The bidders will be bound by the details furnished by them to the Bank, while submitting the tender or at subsequent stage. In case, any of such documents furnished by him / her is found to be false at any stage, it would be deemed to be a breach of terms of contract making him / her liable for legal action besides termination of contract.

21. Signing of Contract:

(a) After completion of the bidding process, the successful bidder(s) shall be required to sign an agreement with the bank wherein all terms and conditions governing the parties shall be mentioned. The agreement shall be required to be executed within fifteen (15) days of being declared the lowest bidder.

(b) The relationship between the Bank and the successful bidder shall be on principal to principal basis after signing of agreement.

22. Any notice, request, consent or approval required or permitted to be given/ made under this RFP to either of the parties hereto shall be in writing, and may be delivered either by hand at the office, or sent by registered post, telegram, fax or electronic mail to the other party, deemed to be effective if sent by personal delivery, when delivered, if sent by post, three days after being deposited in the post, and if sent by courier, two days after being deposited with the courier, and if sent by facsimile/email, when sent (on receipt of confirmation to the correct facsimile number/email id) at its following address or such other address as might have been notified from time to time by it in writing and in the manner hereinabove provided.
